

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Romans 15:7

June 7, 2020

welcome!

Help Yourself to My Riches, But...

There is a story of a king who once invited his subjects to come to his palace for a feast. But, the invitation was of a different sort. The moat around the palace had dried up. Since there was no water, and no promise of rain, the king asked each one of those he had invited to bring a vessel filled with water for the moat. Some of the guests brought buckets full. Others brought cups full. Still others brought snuff boxes filled with water.

When they had finished eating and drinking, dancing and singing, the king said, "Now your majesty has a surprise for you." He threw open the door to his personal storehouse, and there was the king's treasury, stocked up, overflowing: money, jewels, precious perfume, every form of treasure.

"Help yourself to my riches," the king said. "But you can only take home the amount of treasure that you can carry in the vessel in which you brought water."

Does that make you think of the words of Jesus? "Give, and it will be given to you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put in your lap. For the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

Thank You Note

To Our Second Family at Naples Church of Christ,
 There are not enough words to fully express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy, love and support that has been a comfort to us during such a hard time. Your thoughtfulness is appreciated and will never be forgotten. Please continue to pray for us as we heal and move forward.

Forever Grateful,
 Willie and Carla Sledge
